The Office will be closed on Memorial Day, Monday, May 28.

MEMORIAL DAY

Tomorrow, the last Monday in May, Memorial Day is a day on which those who died in active military service for the USA are remembered for their sacrifice. We thank all who have served.

STAFF ADDITION.

We are pleased to announce that our former minister, Paul Spurlin is rejoining our staff as Connections Minister. We are awaiting a decision by Jon Podein as to whether he too will move here.

Initially Paul will be working for Palisades Sunday through Wednesday night. This is a temporary schedule until he and Stephanie can sell their house in Montgomery.

Since Daniel is scheduled to be out next Sunday, June 3, Paul Spurlin will be preaching while Daniel is on vacation.

NEW DEACONS

We welcome four new deacons who are being installed today. Marvin Alexander, Randall Johnson, Kevin Reeves and Lenord Terry will be working with our existing deacons, Don Lovell, Ed Prada and Gary Rasbury

SYMPATHY

We express our sympathy to Todd Wilson in the loss of his step mother, Ingrid Wilson. Her funeral was held on Friday.

We express sympathy to Doris Wood in the loss of her double first cousin, Bill Payton, who passed away at home in Sylacauga on Thursday. The funeral was held on Saturday.

CHANGES COMING

Several changes will be seen in the church building over the upcoming months. Possibly the most noticeable change will be two screens to be installed on the left and right in the front of the auditorium.

FOR RENT

Mike Mazzalongo

There's a "For Rent" sign in front of a house near my home. It's for rent because the young mother who lived there with her husband and two young children committed suicide recently. Her family has moved out and put the house up for rent.

I think of her every time I drive by on my way to and from work and see that sad little sign. Here I am, not one hundred yards from her front door, a two minute walk, daily thanking God for life eternal and the blessings of living in this lovely place with children playing happily in the street while this woman quietly ended her life.

I probably saw her and waved a friendly hello, as people do who live around here, without ever knowing about her pain and sorrow — content to think all was well in her life as it was in mine. I regret that someone so close to me was not aware of the message of hope and life that existed in me but was absent in her hour of need. Survivor guilt perhaps, the thoughts of one who knows he could have done much more.

The sign speaks to me each day. A reminder that we don't really know what goes on in people's lives, even those who live next door — For Rent, For Sale, Foreclose.

"There's no bringing her back," the grief counselor will say to her family and curious neighbors. "You have to move on with your lives," helping everyone to get busy with the new reality that has suddenly appeared.

Eventually the sign will come down and some new family will begin their story in that place. Maybe I'll wave and say hello. Maybe I'll know a name, a job, a dream. Maybe they'll know I have a hope and I live just up the street.
