A Cry for Restoration Part 2

Sermon Notes:

SYMPATHY

Our sympathy goes out to the family of Ulva Rhodes, the brother of Cathy Moncrief. He passed away in Florence on Thursday, January 10, at age 80. Arrangements are pending (as this is written).

CONNECTIONS CAFÉ

The open area in the middle of the basement is finished. It is now called the Connections Café. Work still remains to be done in other areas.

OUT TODAY

Michael Giddens is visiting his cousin, Johnny Gidden's son in Colorado.

Paul Spurlin is speaking on the youth portion of a church leadership conference this weekend in Georgia.

CALENDARS & DIRECTORIES

Fresh directories and January calendars are available on the table in the back of the auditorium.

CONNECT GROUPS

We are in the process of getting ready to activate our Connect Groups in the next few weeks.

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS

Fruit Vegetables

MEMORY VERSE

Proverbs 3:5 (NIV)

<sup>5</sup>Trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding;

Ambassadors for Christ

2019 just began, but some people are already talking about 2020. This is because we will have another presidential election just like we did in 2016, 2012, 2008, 2004, 2000, and so on and so on. Because of social media and the 24-hour news networks, we are constantly reminded of an election that is more than a year away. I do not know what the future holds, but I am confident we will hear things over the next two years that are contrary to the gospel, and it is essential that we prepare ourselves to be ambassadors for Christ rather than ambassadors for a politician, political party, or some other cultural force.

You will hear that the upcoming election is the most important election ever, but Jesus says, "Therefore do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself." (Matt. 6:34)

You will hear lies from politicians and pundits on both sides of the aisle, but the Bible says, "Therefore, having put away falsehood, let each one of you speak the truth with his neighbor." (Ephesians 4:25)

You will be encouraged to hate those who disagree with you, but Jesus says, "Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you." (Matt. 5:44)

You will be asked to proclaim a political platform to everyone you know, but Jesus tells us to "Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation." (Mark 16:15)

You will be challenged to convert your neighbors to a political party, but Jesus says, "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit." (Matt. 28:19)

May we remember in 2019 and 2020 and for every year to come that "our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ." (Philippians 3:20)

---Scott Elliott
